

Hector's World™ – Lesson Plan

Episode 2 – 'Welcome to the Carnival'

Years 5-6

OBJECTIVES:

1. Children understand that there are a variety of reasons why their personal details may be collected both online and offline.
2. Children understand that they should seek advice before entering their details online or providing it to people offline.

SUGGESTED LESSON PROGRESSION:

Introduce the topic by explaining that the class is going to watch a cartoon that will help them make wise decisions about entering their personal details online.

View Hector's World™ Episode 2: 'Welcome to the Carnival'.

Discuss the general themes of the episode with the class. Some starting questions could be:

- When are some times that you need to give someone your name, phone number, etc.?
- Are you ever asked to give your details on the Internet? When?
- What do you think happens to your details when you type them into a web site?

Group the students into threes or fours and distribute one copy of the attached worksheet to each group. The group should choose a recorder and a spokesperson.

View the episode again, asking students to answer the questions on the worksheet. Give each group some time after the episode is finished to complete their answers.

Review the answers given.

Summarise the lesson using the following points as a guide

- From time to time, you are asked to give your personal details such as your name, phone number, address, age and email address
- Before giving out this information you should:
 - Stop – and...
 - Think – about why this person or website wants your details
 - Ask – if anything feels weird or creepy
 - Remember – that you should always ask an adult you trust if you have any doubts

Distribute the wordfind as an extension or reinforcing activity.
